ANNIVERSARY WALTZ WITH YOU

*Many, many years ago, I found a mate in Wales
Doing traffic duty at South Camp barrier rails –*

*Watching people come and go, a smile upon his face
And all dressed up in blue and gold - a worthy bloke to chase.*

*He knew I was an Aussie, he thought I owned a farm
He took me to the evening bar and turned on all the charm.*

*And so it was we married, in Luton, long ago
We travelled down to Rye, in Kent, our honeymoon to know.*

*So now, the long years after – 46 to be exact
With ups and downs along the way, our marriage still intact.*

*In fact it seems just yesterday that we honeymooned in Rye
Since then we've done a thousand things, each year just flashing by.*

*We've worked a while and raised two kids and seen them move away
Then five grandsons who came along have simply 'made our day'!*

*So, fifty years is not far off – we'll make it that's for sure
And then just like these forty-six, we'll look around for more!*

Written by Helen for Ron to celebrate their 46th Wedding Anniversary.
