Satpal Kaur came from a very influential and political family background. She married S. Inder Singh Benepal and was blessed with two sons, Satinder Pal Singh and Prabjot Singh. She enjoyed a vibrant social life in the political scene of Chandigarh for 25 years before coming to Australia in 1989. Her charismatic personality and jolly nature was felt by everyone she touched, forming long lasting relationships.

She devoted herself entirely to her family - nurturing, guiding, and loving her grandchildren as they grew, instilling strong family values. Recently, she also experienced the joy of becoming a great-grandmother.

Satpal Kaur's life exemplified strength and devotion. She endured 24 years of kidney dialysis with remarkable resilience. Her legacy continues to inspire those who knew her, guided by the wisdom of Shri Guru Granth Sahib.
